SAVIO HOUSE

Savio House is part of the worldwide Salesian network responding to the needs of young people. It is the Salesian Residential Youth Retreat Centre in the Province. The heart of Savio House is a residential community of Salesian religious and Salesian lay volunteers, supported by our staff. We welcome over 2,000 young people each year from schools and parishes for a 3-day residential retreat and other young people during the summer for much needed holidays.

The retreats we offer can have a huge positive impact on a young person's development and awakening faith journey, especially in the teenage years. The retreat experience creates a unique space within which old issues can be laid to rest, where a more positive self-image can emerge, where a deeper sense of meaning and direction can come into focus, and where young people can meet their God.

Savio House is financially supported by the Salesian Province, but our rising costs mean we need your support to maintain and develop our unique mission of Savio House, totally dedicated to serving the young.
